

Who We Are

Sweet tahini is an immigrant women-owned company on a mission to connect American consumers to Mediterranean and Middle Eastern sweet palettes by providing them with delicious desserts made with the regions' plant-based nutritious essentials.

Why Tahini

Cultures across the Eastern Mediterranean and Middle East have been using tahini in desserts for generations (think, halvah!) long before US pastry chefs began swirling it into brownies. Crafted from nutrient-rich sesame seeds that are toasted and pressed into a creamy paste, and with a slightly nutty flavor, tahini perfectly pairs with various flavors, including chocolate.
